

CDI COLLEGE DES INGENIEURS GmbH - Munich

Leading European Talent Accelerator with sites in Paris, Munich and Turin

International Management Trainee

15 Positions available at CDI, Europe's leading tech talent accelerator, with industry assignments including to some of the most successful German Technology Corporates listed in the DAX40

City: München; Starting date (earliest): 01/09/25; Duration: 10 Monate;
Remuneration: Fellowship; Reference number: 25S & 26J

Working field

Industry project assignments are typically located at the interface between technology and market, like product innovation, digital transformation, project management, etc. in industries like automotive, aerospace, chemistry, electronics, energy, health, manufacturing, pharma, process, semiconductors, transportation, depending on qualification of each candidate.

Requirements

You are highly motivated and ambitious to create an impact in the real world throughout your professional life. You have an excellent master's degree in engineering or science from one of the top European universities, and you are willing to work very hard on your personal development and your management skills.

What we offer

In parallel to your corporate project assignment, you will follow intense business seminars with plenty of complex and demanding real-life case studies. In small classes, and together with highly talented and diverse European peers, we will train your soft skills including communication, negotiation and leadership.

Your reward is a set of key capabilities for your successful career start:

- Learn to evaluate technological ideas from a business perspective
- Gain skills to pitch and defend concepts at executive level
- Lead innovation projects with confidence and stakeholder awareness
- Engage in professional dialogue with top-level managers about strategy and impact

3000 Top European graduates during the past 40 years, have benefited from a sustainable competitive career advantage. Today, they form a strong network of leaders who are share an innovative spirit to shape the future of our world.

Application

Possible starting dates are in September 2025, or in January 2026.

Receive more information by sending your CV and your B.Sc. diploma and your latest transcripts of records (M.Sc.) to: info@cdi.eu

More information at <https://stellenticket.de/195224/TUB/>
Offer visible until 21/07/25

