- Assist in sourcing and maintaining a strong candidate pipeline in close collaboration with recruiters;
- Coordinate and schedule candidate interviews, ensuring a smooth and professional experience;
- Translate and edit job descriptions to ensure clarity and consistency;
- Post job advertisements and monitor incoming applications.

Requirements

- You are currently enrolled at a German university with at least one year remaining in your studies, ideally in Economics, Business Administration, Human Resources, Psychology, or a related field;
- You have a genuine interest in Human Resources - prior experience in Recruitment is a plus;
- You demonstrate strong self-organization, independence, and a dynamic approach to work;
- You have excellent written and spoken English skills, and proficiency in one or more of the following languages: Turkish, French, Italian, Polish, Czech, Slovak, Serbian, Croatian, Bulgarian and/or German.

What we offer

- A prime location in the heart of Berlin, surrounded by a vibrant atmosphere;
- A friendly and dynamic team that values collaboration and fun;
- A workplace culture built on appreciation, openness, and flat hierarchies;
- Attractive remuneration that reflects your contributions;
- Flexible working hours to support your academic commitments;
- Access to a network of fellow working students and regular community events.
