

NRC Flüchtlingshilfe Deutschland

The Norwegian Refugee Council (NRC) is an independent humanitarian organisation that supports people who have been forced to flee. We work in crisis-affected areas in more than 35 countries, supporting millions of people every year through both emergency and long-term assistance and advocating for the rights of displaced people. For our Berlin office, we are looking for a Digital ICLA Intern (m/f/d) starting on 1.10.2026. NRC's Information, Counselling and Legal Assistance (ICLA) programme helps people affected by displacement access their rights and essential services. Digital ICLA and KOBLI extend this work by providing accessible digital legal information and services across country programmes. This internship will support the ICLA Global Team in strengthening KOBLI's digital outreach, advertising and online engagement.
